

Advanced Placement Testing 2009

You should bring the following items to the exam room:

- Several sharpened No. 2 pencils (with erasers) for all multiple-choice answer sheets
- Pens with black or dark blue ink for completing areas on the exam booklet covers and for free-response questions in most exams
- A watch (in case your exam room does not have a clock that you can see easily)
- Up to two calculators with the necessary capabilities if you are taking an AP Calculus, Chemistry, Physics, or Statistics Exam. (Visit www.collegeboard.com/apstudents to learn more about the calculator policy for each of these exams, and for a list of authorized calculators.)
- A ruler or straightedge if you are taking an AP Physics Exam
- Your social security number for identification purposes (optional). If you provide it, the number will appear on your AP Grade Reports.
- Your College Board SSD Accommodations Letter if you are taking an exam with approved testing accommodations
- A sweater or sweatshirt, if needed
- Water (must be a clear water bottle with no label- only accessible during break)

You should not bring the following to the exam room:

- Cell phones, PDAs, MP3 players, e-mail/messaging devices, and any other electronic or communication devices
- Books, compasses, colored pencils*, correction fluid, dictionaries, highlighters*, or notes
- Rulers and straightedges (except as noted above)
- Scratch paper (notes can be made on portions of the exam booklets)
- Computers* or calculators (except as noted above)
- Watches that beep or have an alarm
- Portable listening* or recording devices (even with headphones) or photographic equipment
- Food
- Clothing with subject-related information

Students may not be dismissed until an exam has officially ended; do not ask to leave early if you finish before the end of the exam. If you play a sport or have a job, it is your responsibility to inform your coach or employer of your AP Exam obligation, and arrangements should be made accordingly.

Get a good night's rest before your exam, and eat a nutritious breakfast. You are allowed to bring water for your 10-minute break. However, it must be in a clear bottle with no label and it is only accessible during the break. It is advisable to bring a sweater, in case the room temperature is below your comfort level.

You are required to abide by the policies of both the College Board and La Costa Canyon High School during the exam period. Any misconduct will be reported and could jeopardize your AP Exam grade.
